A Complete Class for D&D, 5th Edition

CLASS IDENTITY

Mirrorwardens are bonded to a Fractured — a shattered mirror spirit of immense, volatile power. Where other casters study spellbooks and commune with divine forces, a Mirrorwarden builds their power through observation. They watch. They absorb. They reflect.

Their magic comes not from within but from everywhere — drawn from enemies who underestimate them, copied from allies mid-combat, stolen from legendary creatures. Every spell witnessed is a resource. Every failed attack is an opportunity. The longer a Mirrorwarden survives, the more dangerous they become.

At the heart of this is the Fractured. It is not a tool. It is a second self — companion, vault, and weapon. It shatters so you can detonate. It reforms so you can fight again.

CORE CLASS FEATURES

Level 1

The Fractured

You are bonded to a Fractured — a shattered mirror spirit of immense, volatile power. It manifests as a towering figure of fractured glass, eyes blazing with silver light.

SUMMONING: As a bonus action, summon or dismiss within 30 feet. Acts immediately after you on initiative and follows commands without requiring an action.

MIRROR LINK: Advantage on Wisdom (Perception) checks while summoned. Bonus action to perceive through the Fractured's eyes until start of your next turn. Use Mirror Imprint from the Fractured's location.

THE VAULT: All Reflection and Mirror Slots live inside the Fractured. If it is at 0 HP stored slots are inaccessible — you can still imprint but nothing activates until it reforms.

SHATTERING BURST: When reduced to 0 HP it detonates. Every creature within 15 feet (except you) makes a Dexterity save vs your Mirror Save DC.

- Failure: 2d6 piercing + 2d6 radiant (scales: 3d6+3d6 at lv 5, 4d6+4d6 at lv 10, 5d6+5d6 at lv 15)
- Success: Half

You take psychic damage equal to your Mirrorwarden level as the bond fractures.

SHATTERING SURGE: After the burst fires, spend any number of Hit Dice. Roll each — gain Mirror Points equal to the total rolled.

REFORMATION: Spend 2 Mirror Points (bonus action). The Fractured reforms within 30 feet at half HP. All stored slots immediately become accessible.

Level 1

Mirror Imprint

Reaction. When a creature you can see within 60 feet casts a spell, attempt to imprint it.

PERSUASION CHECK: DC = 10 + spell level (Charisma-based)

- Success: fills one open Reflection Slot
- Full vault: you may overwrite a Reflection Slot of your choice
- Mirror Slots are never overwritten accidentally

CASTING FROM A SLOT: Spend Mirror Points equal to the spell's level (minimum 1). Use Charisma as your spellcasting modifier.

Mirror Save DC = 8 + proficiency bonus + Charisma modifier

SLOT DURATION: Reflection Slots clear at end of combat. Mirror Slots persist until consciously overwritten.

Level 1

Unarmored Defense

While not wearing armor: AC = 10 + Dexterity modifier + Charisma modifier. Shields still apply.

Level 2

Shatter Pulse

Action. Cost: 2 Mirror Points.

The Fractured emits a burst in a 15-foot radius. Each creature makes a Constitution save vs Mirror Save DC.

- Failure: 2d6 radiant + blinded until end of their next turn
- Success: Half damage, no blindness

Damage: 2d6 at lv 2, 3d6 at lv 5, 4d6 at lv 10, 5d6 at lv 15

Level 2 Reflect Resistance

Reaction. When you can see a creature within 60 feet with a damage resistance, attempt to imprint it.

PERSUASION CHECK: DC = 10 + target's proficiency bonus

- Success: fills one open Reflection Slot

Activation: spend 1 Mirror Point to apply resistance to yourself OR the Fractured.

Duration: until end of combat. Limit: one resistance active on each of you at a time.

Level 2 Charge Generation

Two passive sources of Mirror Points come online permanently.

REFLEXIVE CHARGE: Once per round, when you are targeted by a spell or magical effect — hit or miss — gain 1 Mirror Point. Expands to include the Fractured being targeted at level 15.

FRACTURED FEEDBACK: Once per turn, when the Fractured deals damage gain 1 Mirror Point. Triggers on a miss after level 5 (Fractured Ascendancy).

All Mirror Points recover on a short or long rest.

Level 3 Mirror Vault

Your first Mirror Slot opens. When you successfully imprint anything you may route it into your Mirror Slot instead of a Reflection Slot. It persists until you consciously overwrite it.

Only enemy or creature abilities may fill Mirror Slots. Ally abilities fill Reflection Slots only — a living reflection cannot be crystallized.

Your Mirror Slot is your first permanent trophy. Choose wisely.

Level 5 Extra Attack

You can attack twice whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

Level 5 Fractured Ascendancy

The Fractured evolves:

- Second attack when it takes the Attack action
- Mirror Strike increases to 2d8 + 4 slashing + 2d6 radiant
- Shattering Burst increases to 3d6 piercing + 3d6 radiant
- Advantage on saving throws against spells and magical effects
- Fractured Feedback now generates 1 Mirror Point even on a miss

Level 5 Ability Imprint

Reaction. When a creature within 60 feet uses a named combat ability — Sneak Attack, Frightful Presence, Stunning Strike — attempt to imprint it.

PERSUASION CHECK: DC = 10 + target's proficiency bonus

- Enemy source: may be routed to a Mirror Slot if desired
- Ally source: Reflection Slot only — never permanent

MIRROR'S GRACE: When imprinting a willing ally's ability, that ally immediately receives:

- Temporary HP equal to twice your Charisma modifier
- Advantage on their next use of that ability

(Regardless of check result)

Level 7 Mirrored Soul

PAIN SHARING (Reaction): When you take damage while the Fractured is summoned, split that damage equally between yourself and the Fractured (round up to you). Cannot be used if Fractured is at 0 HP.

SECOND MIRROR SLOT: Your permanent arsenal grows. You now carry two crystallized reflections at all times.

Level 9 Prismatic Reflection

OVERCHARGE: When you imprint something into an already-full slot type, push it into an existing stored entry — overcharging it. An overcharged slot activates at one tier higher for the same Mirror Point cost.

SURE REFLECTION (1/short rest): One imprint attempt automatically succeeds — no Persuasion check required.

Level 10 Fractured: Greater Form

The Fractured grows to Huge size:

- +2 AC
- +30 maximum HP
- Reach extends to 10 feet
- Mirror Collapse (1/turn): On a hit, target makes Strength save (Mirror Save DC) or is restrained until end of their next turn
- Shattering Burst increases to 4d6 piercing + 4d6 radiant

Level 11 Splintered Echo

When you activate a stored Reflection or Mirror Slot, spend 1 additional Mirror Point to fire it through the Fractured as the point of origin — using its position, not yours. The effect resolves as if you were standing where the Fractured stands.

The Fractured must be summoned and conscious. This is one more reason to keep it alive.

Level 13 Deeper Imprint

DAMAGE IMMUNITIES: Attempt to imprint a creature's damage immunity.

PERSUASION CHECK: DC = 10 + proficiency bonus + 4

Activation: 2 Mirror Points — applies immunity (not resistance) to yourself or the Fractured until end of combat.

LEGENDARY TRAITS: Passive extraordinary abilities — Regeneration, damage thresholds, Legendary Resistance.

PERSUASION CHECK: DC = 10 + proficiency bonus + 4

- Legendary Resistance stored: once per long rest, fail a save and choose to succeed. Slot consumed on use.
- Regeneration stored: regain HP equal to Charisma modifier at the start of each of your turns until end of combat.

THIRD MIRROR SLOT opens at this level.

Level 15 Shattering Resolve

VOLUNTARY BURST (Action): Trigger Shattering Burst intentionally — even at full HP. The Fractured detonates at full power (5d6+5d6, Dex save) then reforms at the start of your next turn at full HP. No Mirror Point cost. No psychic damage to you. Controlled detonation.

EXPANDED REFLEXIVE CHARGE: Reflexive Charge now also triggers when the Fractured is targeted by a spell or attack.

Level 17 Mirror Absolute

Reaction. Once per short rest.

When you or the Fractured are targeted by a spell or ability, attempt to absorb it before it lands.

PERSUASION CHECK:

- Spells: DC = 10 + spell level
- Abilities: DC = 10 + source's proficiency bonus

Success: The effect is completely negated and automatically imprinted (no check) into an open Reflection Slot. If no slot is open it displaces the oldest stored entry.

Failure: The effect resolves normally. You still gain 1 Mirror Point for the attempt.

Level 18 Cascading Reflection

When you activate a stored slot and at least one creature fails their saving throw or is hit by the effect, immediately attempt one free imprint — no reaction cost, no Persuasion check — on any creature you can see within 60 feet.

Triggers once per activation regardless of how many creatures were affected.

Level 20 Fractured: True Form

The Fractured manifests what it was always becoming. Grows to Gargantuan size:

- +2 AC (total +4 over base)
- +30 maximum HP (combined: +60 over base)
- Shattering Burst: 6d6+6d6, radius expands to 30 feet
- Full Reformation: returns at full HP instead of half
- Legendary Resilience (1/day): if it fails a saving throw it may choose to succeed
- Fourth Mirror Slot opens

Level 20 Endless Reflection

At the start of each of your turns, regain 3 Mirror Points (up to your maximum). Combined with Reflexive Charge and Fractured Feedback you are effectively self-sustaining. The mirror never goes dark. The loop never ends.

THE FRACTURED

The Fractured is a mirror spirit given form — a towering figure of shattered reflective glass, eyes blazing with silver light, showing distorted glimpses of worlds that should not exist. It is not truly alive, yet it is more than a construct. It is the externalized weight of everything its Mirrorwarden has ever witnessed and absorbed.

The Fractured's HP equals the Mirrorwarden's maximum HP. Its proficiency bonus equals the Mirrorwarden's proficiency bonus.

TRAITS

Mirror Shards. Creatures starting their turn within 5 feet of the Fractured make a Constitution save (DC 8 + proficiency bonus) or have disadvantage on their first attack roll before the end of their turn.

Unwavering Bond. The Fractured cannot be charmed, frightened, or controlled. It obeys only its bonded Mirrorwarden.

Reformation. When reduced to 0 HP, the Fractured shatters and the Mirrorwarden takes psychic damage equal to their level. At the start of the Mirrorwarden's next turn they may spend 2 Mirror Points to reform it at half HP in any space within 30 feet. Otherwise it reforms after 1 minute automatically.

ACTIONS

Mirror Strike. Melee Weapon Attack: +5 + proficiency bonus to hit, reach 5 ft. (10 ft. at level 10). Hit: 1d8 + 4 slashing + 1d4 radiant. Increases to 2d8 + 4 slashing + 2d6 radiant at level 5.

Shard Barrage (Recharge 5-6). 15-foot cone. Dexterity save vs Mirror Save DC. Failure: 3d6 piercing + 3d6 radiant. Success: half. Increases to 5d6 + 5d6 at level 5.

EVOLUTION MILESTONES

Levels 1-4

Awakening — Medium/Large mirror spirit. One attack per turn. Mirror Shards aura active. HP matches the Mirrorwarden.

Level 5

Ascendance — Second attack unlocked. All damage dice improve. Advantage on saves against magic. Fractured Feedback triggers on misses.

Level 10	Greater Form — Grows Huge. +2 AC, +30 HP, 10 ft. reach. Mirror Collapse restraint. Shattering Burst increases.
Level 20	True Form — Becomes Gargantuan. +2 AC, +30 HP again. Burst radius 30 feet. Legendary Resilience. Full reformation. Fourth Mirror Slot.

MIRROR PATH — PATH OF THE FRACTAL

Path of the Fractal

"You cannot hit what is already somewhere else."

Level 3 Mirror Step

Bonus Action. Cost: 1 Mirror Point.

Teleport up to 30 feet to an unoccupied space you can see. An afterimage remains at your origin point.

THE AFTERIMAGE:

- Has 1 HP and your AC. Lasts until start of your next turn or until it takes damage.
- A creature that cannot see through illusions targets it first on its first attack.
- When it shatters: every creature within 5 feet takes 1d4 piercing + 1d4 radiant (no save).

You may bring the Fractured with you — it appears adjacent to your destination.

Level 3 Cascade Fragment

Always on. No cost required.

When you activate a stored slot that deals damage and at least one creature is hit or fails their save, one shard automatically ricochets to one additional target of your choice within 15 feet of the original.

Fragment damage equals your Charisma modifier in the same damage type as the activation.

Hit something. The mirror scatters.

Level 6 Fractal Assault

SHATTER DASH: When you Mirror Step you may detonate your afterimage on arrival rather than leaving it standing. It explodes at your origin — every creature within 10 feet makes a Dexterity save vs your Mirror Save DC.

- Failure: 2d6 piercing + 2d6 radiant • Success: Half

TWIN ANGLE: When you and the Fractured both deal damage to the same target on the same turn, Cascade Fragment triggers twice — hitting two separate nearby targets instead of one.

Level 14 Shatter Pattern

Action. Once per short rest.

Every Reflection Slot and Mirror Slot activates simultaneously — each targeting a different creature or area within normal range. Between each activation you may Mirror Step once for free. Each activation automatically triggers Cascade Fragment at no additional cost. The Fractured makes one Mirror Strike as part of each activation.

After Shatter Pattern resolves: all Reflection Slots are emptied. Mirror Slots fire but are not consumed — they are permanent.

MIRROR PATH — PATH OF THE BASTION

Path of the Bastion

"You want through? Get through me first."

Level 3 Threat Lock

Bonus action: designate who holds threat — yourself or the Fractured. Whoever holds threat is the Threat Anchor.

WHILE YOU ARE THE THREAT ANCHOR:

- Enemies within 30 feet have disadvantage on attack rolls against any creature other than you.
- When an enemy within 30 feet attacks another creature: reaction — make one weapon attack against them.
- +2 to your AC.

WHILE THE FRACTURED IS THE THREAT ANCHOR:

- Enemies within 30 feet of the Fractured have disadvantage on attacks against any creature other than the Fractured.
- Fractured gains +2 AC and resistance to nonmagical bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage.
- When an enemy attacks another creature: the Fractured can use its reaction to move 15 feet toward that enemy (no opportunity attacks) then make one Mirror Strike.

Level 3 Mirror Sheen

While your HP is above half your maximum, your surface reflects what strikes it.

PASSIVE: When a creature hits you with a melee attack, it takes radiant damage equal to your Charisma modifier. No action required.

ARMOR MASTERY: You gain proficiency in medium armor. While wearing medium armor or using Unarmored Defense, add half your proficiency bonus (rounded down) as an additional bonus to your AC.

Level 6 Fracture Absorption

When your HP drops to half your maximum or below, your defensive posture shifts automatically.

ABSORPTION MODE (active below half HP):

- Once per turn when you take damage, reduce that damage by 1d8 + Charisma modifier (minimum 0).
- For every 5 damage absorbed (rounded down), immediately gain 1 Mirror Point.
- Mirror Sheen is suppressed while Absorption Mode is active.

HUNGRY MIRROR: While in Absorption Mode, the Persuasion check DC to imprint damage resistances is reduced by 4.

Level 14 Glass Fortress

Action. Once per long rest. Duration: 1 minute.

- Resistance to all damage.
- Fractured has immunity to all damage.
- HP threshold suspended — Mirror Sheen always active reflecting Charisma modifier x2 on every melee hit.
- Absorption Mode suspended — no absorption or charges from damage during Fortress.
- Once per round (reaction): when any ally within 30 feet takes damage, redirect half that damage to yourself instead.

SHARD TALLY: Each time you take damage during the Fortress, mark one tally. Count only — no math.
MIRROR COLLAPSE (when duration ends): Every creature within 20 feet makes a Dexterity save vs your Mirror Save DC.

- Failure: 1d8 radiant damage per tally mark • Success: Half

Ends early only if you fall unconscious or choose to end it.

MIRROR PATH — PATH OF THE SILVER LIGHT

Path of the Silver Light

"Stand near it. The glass remembers you."

Level 3 Luminous Aura

The Fractured radiates silver light in a 15-foot radius while summoned. Allies within the aura gain passively — no action, no Mirror Point cost:

- +1 bonus to AC.
- Movement within the aura does not provoke opportunity attacks.
- At the start of each ally's turn within the aura: temporary HP equal to your Charisma modifier.

The aura moves with the Fractured. Positioning it is the central skill expression of this subclass.

Level 3 Resistance Weave

When you activate a stored resistance using Mirror Points, you may apply it to one ally within 30 feet instead of yourself or the Fractured.

SPLIT WEAVE (2 Mirror Points): Apply the resistance to two targets simultaneously — any combination of yourself, the Fractured, or allies within 30 feet. Each target gains the full resistance until end of combat.

The mirror does not hoard what it holds.

Level 6 Mirror's Intercession

Two active tools that share a reaction — you choose which to use.

INTERCEPT (Reaction, 1 Mirror Point): When an ally within 60 feet is hit or fails a save, choose one:

- Grant +3 to their AC against that attack (declared after the roll, before outcome is confirmed).
- Grant +3 to the saving throw (declared after the roll, before failure is confirmed).

REACTIVE RELOCATION (Reaction, proficiency bonus uses per short rest): When an ally within 30 feet of the Fractured takes damage, the damage resolves normally — then teleport that ally to any unoccupied space within the Luminous Aura. No opportunity attacks.

SILVERED GRACE (upgrade): When imprinting a willing ally's ability: temporary HP increases to four times Charisma modifier; advantage on their next two uses; you gain 1 Mirror Point regardless of check result.

Level 14 Grand Illumination

Action. Once per long rest. Duration: 1 minute.

- Luminous Aura expands to 30 feet.
- All allies within the aura gain +2 AC (total +3 with existing aura bonus).
- All allies gain resistance to one damage type of your choice (must be held in any current slot).
- Temporary HP from the aura increases to Charisma modifier x3 at the start of each ally's turn.
- Once per round (free action): grant one ally within the aura an additional reaction before the start of their next turn. An already-spent reaction refreshes.
- The Fractured cannot be reduced below 1 HP for the duration.

SILVER FAREWELL: When Grand Illumination ends, every ally within the aura gains temporary HP equal to Charisma modifier x4.

MAGIC ITEMS

All items require attunement by a Mirrorwarden. Non-Mirrorwardens can hold these items but gain none of their benefits.

Sliver of the First Mirror

Common | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Wondrous (spellcasting focus)

A thumb-sized shard of ancient mirror glass on a cord of braided silver wire. Its surface never fogs and reflects something slightly different than what stands before it.

- Imprint range increases from 60 feet to 80 feet.
- Once per short rest, one imprint attempt automatically succeeds — declared before the check, which is skipped.
- OVERFLOW: Attempt to imprint even with no open Reflection Slots. The shard holds it for up to 1 minute. If a slot opens, the overflow fills it. Otherwise it dissolves.

Fracture Blade

Uncommon | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Weapon (any sword)

A blade etched from pommel to tip with a web of fine mirror cracks that scatter light in every direction simultaneously.

- +1 to attack and damage rolls.
- On a hit: the next imprint Persuasion check against that creature has its DC reduced by 3 until the start of your next turn.
- When you Mirror Step immediately before or after attacking with this weapon on the same turn, deal an additional 1d6 radiant damage.
- The Fractured's Mirror Strike uses this weapon's +1 bonus while you are attuned.

*

Mirrorweave Wrap

Uncommon | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Armor (light armor)

Leather armor reinforced with overlapping scales of polished mirror glass.

- +1 AC while worn.
- You retain Unarmored Defense while wearing this armor — use whichever AC calculation is higher.
- Once per short rest when damage would drop you below half HP, use your reaction to reduce that damage by 1d8 + Charisma modifier.
- While Absorption Mode is active, the scales shed dim light in a 5-foot radius.

*

Echo Chamber

Rare | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Wondrous (ornate hand mirror, focus)

An elaborately framed hand mirror that never shows your own reflection — only the last thing you imprinted, playing on loop in perfect silence.

- Your Mirror Vault gains one additional Reflection Slot while attuned.
- Activating a stored slot costs 1 fewer Mirror Point (minimum 0).
- When you grant Mirror's Grace to an ally, gain Mirror Points equal to half your Charisma modifier (rounded up).

- Once per long rest, commit a freshly imprinted ability directly to a Mirror Slot instantly — no action required.

*

The Shattered Crown

Rare | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Wondrous (headwear)

A crown of jagged mirror shards floating in slow orbit around the wearer's head. They never touch. They never fall.

- All imprint Persuasion checks use your Mirror Save DC instead of your Persuasion modifier.
 - Imprint range for all types extends to 120 feet.
 - Once per long rest when the Fractured shatters, suppress the Shattering Burst entirely — the Fractured silently reforms at the start of your next turn at full HP, all stored slots intact.
 - When you suppress the burst this way, gain Mirror Points equal to your proficiency bonus.

*

Heart of the Fractured

Very Rare | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Wondrous

A perfectly spherical orb of silver glass that pulses with a slow heartbeat. Warm to the touch. Does not reflect — only emits its own pale light. This is not an item the Fractured tolerates. This is its heart.

- Fractured's maximum HP increases by 40.
 - Fractured gains +2 to all attack and damage rolls.
 - Once per long rest when the Fractured would reach 0 HP, it instead drops to 1 HP. Shattering Burst does not trigger.
 - The Fractured gains an independent resistance slot — holds one resistance at all times (chosen at long rest). Persists even while the Fractured is at 0 HP.
 - PSYCHIC ANCHOR: The psychic damage you take when the Fractured shatters is reduced to 0.

*

The Obsidian Pane

Legendary | Requires Attunement: Mirrorwarden

Wondrous (freestanding mirror)

A full-length standing mirror of black obsidian glass. When you attuned to it, it shattered — every shard embedded into the Fractured, which then began to glow from within. The Fractured looks different now.

- OBSIDIAN VAULT: The Fractured gains a fourth Mirror Slot (independent). Can only hold abilities or spells from creatures of CR 13 or higher. Either you or the Fractured can activate it.
 - TWIN VAULT: Once per turn when you activate a stored slot, the Fractured can activate a different stored slot simultaneously as a free action.
 - OBSIDIAN REFLECTION (once per long rest, Action): The Fractured becomes a portal for 1 minute. Willing creatures that move through it emerge from any reflective surface within 1 mile you have seen before.

THE VAEINDOR — MIRROR ELVES

Children of Reflection

The word they use for themselves — Vaelindor — means "children of reflection" in old Elvish. Other races call them Mirror Elves, which they find reductive. They are not mirrors. They are what mirrors become when they break with enough magic inside them and the pieces refuse to stay apart.

A Mirror Elf emerges fully formed. No infancy, no childhood, no parents. One moment there is a shattered mirror on the floor of a ruined tower, and sometime within the next year the fragments draw together, fuse, and stand up. They carry the memories of everything that mirror ever reflected: countless faces, arguments, coronations, murders, first kisses, last words. All distorted. All real. None of it theirs.

Learning to distinguish your own identity from the noise of inherited reflection is the central struggle of every Mirror Elf's life.

APPEARANCE

Mirror Elves bear the sharp, angular features common to their kin but their skin tells a different story. Across their face, neck, hands, and body run fine crack-line patterns — the seams where the fragments of their origin mirror fused together. These lines catch light differently: slightly more reflective, occasionally flickering silver or pale blue depending on the angle. Their eyes range from pale silver to deep mirror-black with no visible pupil in bright light. Looking a Mirror Elf in the eyes in good light means looking at a distorted version of yourself. Hair ranges from white to silver to deep grey, with occasional threads that catch light like filament. As they age their fracture lines deepen and spread.

RACIAL TRAITS

Trait

Ability Score Increases

- +2 Charisma, +1 Wisdom.

Mirror Elves traded the agility of their woodland kin for a Charisma that comes not from warmth but from the dissonance of looking at something that almost makes sense.

Trait

Age

Mirror Elves emerge fully formed as adults and live up to 250 years. They have no infancy, no childhood, no parents. As they age the crack patterns deepen and spread. An elder whose fracture lines have reached their face is considered to have survived things worth listening to.

Trait

Size & Speed

Medium. 30 feet. Mirror Elves stand between 5 and 6 feet tall, slight and angular like most elves, though their proportions are occasionally slightly wrong in ways that are difficult to articulate.

Trait

Languages

Common, Elvish, and one additional language of your choice. Born carrying reflections of countless cultures their origin mirror witnessed across decades, Mirror Elves absorb language faster than almost any other race.

Trait Darkvision

60 feet. Mirror Elves see clearly in dim light — their reflective eyes gather what little light exists and amplify it across the silver-glass surface of their irises.

Trait Keen Senses

You have proficiency in Wisdom (Perception). Your eyes, shaped by the same magic that makes mirrors useful, miss very little.

Trait Fractured Sight

You have Expertise in Wisdom (Perception) — double your proficiency bonus on all Perception checks. Your crack-patterned eyes catch angles of light and movement that shouldn't be visible from your position.

Trait Fey Ancestry

You have advantage on saving throws against being charmed and cannot be put to sleep by magic. The fey blood runs thin — they are further from that origin than most elves — but it never fully disappears.

Trait Mirror Trance

You do not sleep. Instead you enter a reflective trance for 4 hours per long rest. During this trance you replay — in perfect, unedited clarity — everything you personally witnessed in the past 24 hours. You may ask the DM to surface details that were within range of your senses but not consciously registered: a symbol on a ring, the number of guards, the crest above a door. After trance you gain the benefits of 8 hours of sleep.

Trait Fractured Visage

Your crack-patterned skin makes your expressions nearly impossible to read.

- Creatures have disadvantage on Wisdom (Insight) checks made against you.
- You gain proficiency in Deception.

Trait Reflective Eyes

Your mirror-like eyes catch light and movement from angles that shouldn't be visible. You cannot be surprised while you are conscious. For Mirrorwardens specifically, this ensures you never lose your opening reaction turn.

Trait Reflected Memory

Once per long rest. Over 1 minute of concentration, reach into inherited reflections and ask the DM one question about a person, place, or object you have personally seen. The DM answers based on what impressions your mirror-memories might hold — not from your current knowledge, but from the deep well of borrowed reflection. The answer is always filtered through distortion: true, but not always immediately clear.
